

EXECUTIVE PROTECTION PROGRAM

EVALUATE, EMPOWER, SHIELD

Our Executive Protection Program delivers cutting-edge risk assessments, expert training, and discreet advisement to shield high-value individuals from physical and hybrid threats. Covering operating environments, travel, residences, and personal safety, our comprehensive approach includes penetration testing, tailored self-defense consultations, and more—equipping executives with the tools to thrive in high-risk scenarios. You'll gain a fortified, confident posture ready to protect what matters most in an unpredictable world.

Comprehensive Risk Assessment

Our exhaustive assessment evaluates threats, probability, vulnerabilities, and consequences across operating areas, travel routes, and home security, delivering deep insights and tailored advisement to fortify executive safety.

Active Threat Response Training

Impactful in-person "Run, Hide, Fight" training prepares executives to respond decisively to active threats with proven survival strategies.

Penetration Testing

Discreet penetration tests probe physical security measures—like residences or offices—revealing weaknesses and advising on robust countermeasures.

Travel Security Advisement

Expert assessment on travel risks and advise on secure itineraries and contingency plans for safe movement, domestically and abroad.

Family Security Planning

We assess risks to your loved ones and advise on tailored security measures—like safe routines and emergency protocols—ensuring comprehensive protection for your family.
